

Admissions Checklist for the Ph.D. in the Built Environment University of Washington, Seattle

This page is for applicant's use and need not be returned with the application.

Please see Admission Procedure for more information and detail on program requirements and the Graduate School's Admission Information for their requirements.

Deadlines

These are flexible, but applications received by the deadline will receive priority and incomplete applications will not be reviewed.

- January 1 (international applicants)
- February 1st (U.S. citizens, permanent residents, and immigrants)

1. Materials to be completed online

- Graduate School Application and fee payment
- Arrange to have your official GRE scores sent to institution code 4854 (there is no departmental code)
- Applicants whose native language is not English should have their English proficiency test results sent to institution code 4854 (see Graduate School Memo 8 for exemptions)
- Letters of recommendation (3 minimum, 6 maximum) may be requested either as part of your online application or on paper (see below)

2. Materials to be physically mailed to Ph.D. in the Built Environment

- Signed, dated copy of your Graduate School Application
- Completed program application form
- Curriculum vitae
- Statement of purpose
- Transcripts
- Exhibit/Sample of work
- Letters of recommendation (3 minimum) if you have not requested your recommenders to send them electronically via your Graduate School Application

Mail address:

Neile Graham, Program Coordinator
Ph.D. in the Built Environment
University of Washington
Box 355740
Seattle, WA 98195-5740

Street address for courier services:

Neile Graham, Program Coordinator
Ph.D. in the Built Environment
410 Gould Hall
3950 University Way NE
Seattle, WA 98105

3. Materials to be mailed to the Graduate School:

You do not need to mail any materials to the Graduate School until you have been notified of acceptance into the program, at which time you will be required to send official transcripts.

If you are unable to complete the on-line application, please see the Graduate School admissions site for instructions. This department is able to accept paper applications.